

2006 Hunger and Nutrition Summit

Strengthen your organization's response to childhood hunger by joining the Indiana Coalition on Housing and Homeless Issues and its partners, Feeding Indiana's Hungry (FIsh) and Children's Bureau, Inc. at the 2006 Hunger and Nutrition Summit. The Summit will take place on Friday, June 2nd in Indianapolis at the North United Methodist Church on 38th and Meridian from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Workshops include:

- * Hunger Doesn't Take a Vacation: Successful Models for Summer Feeding Program
- * Ensuring Year-round Nutrition for Children: Food Stamp Outreach Opportunities for Schools, Community and Faith-based Organizations
- * Innovative Public-Private Partnerships: Kid's Cafe and Backpack Programs
- * One Voice, Your Voice: Strengthening Our Collective Response to Hunger

In addition to the workshops, Clarence Carter, USDA Deputy Director of the Food Stamp Program and Peter Dunn, CEO of Steak n Shake will be giving the keynote and end-of-the-day plenary session, respectively. Mr. Dunn will be discussing ways that faith and community-based organizations can partner with business and industry to strengthen the response to hunger in our state.
